

Faces of Tomorrow

A children's board book written by Mary Gordon that supports the Roots of Empathy (ROE) organization.

Beautiful full-colour portraits of ten diverse babies accompany text in 5 languages (English, French, Spanish, Punjabi, Chinese), which serve to strengthen the emotional bond between parent and child.

"We begin with love," Mary Gordon states in the book, "Love is the cement of the future that connects us all in a universal chain of possibility. The birth of each baby is the birth of hope. Through loving parenting babies develop empathy. This ability to understand how others feel is prerequisite for conflict resolution, altruism, and a peaceful tomorrow." Order your copies today:

All proceeds from the sale of Faces of Tomorrow are reinvested into the Seeds of Empathy and Roots of Empathy programs to support the work of the ROE organization, a national charity dedicated to building caring, peaceful and civil societies through the development of empathy in children and adults.
